could. The murderers made attempt to rob; everything was intact, and it is consequently supposed that private vengeance was the motive for the crime. The attack took place at M. Casseaux's hotel.

A fight came off in Paso Julio Friday between an old veteran of the Regulars and a policeman. The former used his sword and the veteran a ficion. The fencing for several minutes was really splendid, till the young policeman fell and ran his sword through his stomach, his adversary being the first to render every assistance.

Exchange opened this morning rather weak, but soon recovered and reported at 4 1/2 per cent. to 5.21 gold, and at 8 1/2 for rates. There were few takers, and bills were passed at 5.24-5.25; Antwerp; 495 London; and 4 1/2 paper rates. The amount of exchange passed for the month is said to be large, and much in the hands of the brokers' anticipation.

been by the suspension of the Hamburg of Godfrey & Sons, who are amongst the most successful mercantile firms in all Prussia. They are descended from French nobles, and have occupied one of the foremost places in the commercial annals of Hamburg during six generations. Two hundred and thirty years ago, they were noted for their extensive and dangerous speculations, and there is a general belief about them that a few never last more than three generations. They were the first great bankers in Germany, and great commerce was done by them in the Southern seas. The firm was generally considered to be a poor one, and its share merchant prices even in our time were little more than nominal. The firm's assets (£500,000 sterling), but the exact amount is not yet known. The firm's assets and the liabilities by several million marks, and they are very difficult to unravel.

opened this morning rather well. The market was reported at 4.11 paper gold, but at such low rates the buyers, and bills were passed at 5.20; 49s London; and 4.13 paper gold. A large amount of exchange passed for the day, and is said to be large, and much more than the brokers' anticipations.

German Lloyd steamer Hohenstaufen, was welcomed on 'Change. The brass band of the steamer came ashore to-day, to salute Mr. Von Enster, the agent of the line and we believe they give a musical entertainment at the Turn Club. The Mole and Passo Julio were turned inside out at the demonstration caused by the German band marching up and playing stirring German airs and the crowd was tremendous.
